

COMMITTEES FOR BENEFIT FAIR NAMED; PREPARATIONS RUSHED

In order to assist in securing a permanent endowment of $8000 for the Children's Hospital, the trustees of that institution have been informed by A. S. Wilcox that he will subscribe $5000 of this amount providing they raise the remaining $3000. In extending this offer, Mr. Wilcox set no time limit for the securing of the rest of the funds, but already the trustees have formed plans whereby the endowment may be made complete within a short time.

One of the first steps which will be taken toward raising the remainder of the amount will be the holding of a fair which will take place on Saturday, April 26, at the residence of H. F. Lewis on Panahoa street, who has kindly offered the use of the house and premises to the committee for the occasion. Besides being a number of booths, luau and foreign tables, and other forms of entertainment, the old Spreckels home will be thrown open for inspection, for which privilege a small sum will be charged. It is expected by those in charge of the affair that many persons will avail themselves of the opportunity of seeing the interior of this famous residence.

The fair will open at two o'clock in the afternoon, closing at five o'clock and reopening at six o'clock for the café chantant. Food will also be dispensed at the luau and foreign tables. A number of gypsies will encamp in the vicinity and over the mysterious kettle fortunes will be told and palms read. There will also be a floor where dancers may enjoy the waits under the starlight. The fancy articles booth will be in charge of Mrs. E. D. Tenney; coffee and ice cream, Mrs. R. W. Shingle; candy, Mrs. Arthur F. Wall; lemonade, Miss Harriet Hatch; flowers, Mrs. A. J. Campbell; wandering gypsies, Mrs. Jack Hawes; grab-box, Mrs. C. B. Cooper; luau table, Mrs. C. S. Holloway, and café chantant, Miss Helen Noonan.

The following chairmen of the committees have been appointed: Mrs. J. W. Macfarlane, chairman of the committee of the whole; Mrs. J. M. Dowsett, chairman of the finance committee, assisted by Mrs. Montague Cooke, Mrs. E. J. Timberlake and Mrs. E. F. Bishop.

were timid of the effect it would have on Congress. Others considered the whole thing a joke and were not slow in saying so. A good deal of ridicule was today poked at those who yesterday favored the plan. All sides of the question are being taken today. The sponsors for the petition, however, seem inclined to carry the matter no further, saying that the whole object has been accomplished in the publicity given the sentiment yesterday afternoon and this morning.

'REPUBLIC' PLAN WILL GO NO FURTHER

No further steps will be taken by the men who yesterday proposed to petition Congress to allow Hawaii to go back to its status as a republic in case the tariff on sugar should be removed and the sugar industry wrecked here.

Even the publication yesterday afternoon of the fact that such a move was being seriously considered aroused a storm of comment pro and con with which Honolulu today is humming like a bee-hive. This morning the men who yesterday expressed themselves as favoring the plan said that their object had been accomplished and that the gravity of Hawaii's situation has been brought forcibly before the world.

Governor Frear, Chief Justice Robertson, L. A. Thurston and others denounced the plan as unthinkable. Others declared it a good move but

COL. GALBRAITH WILL STAY HERE

Colonel J. G. Galbraith expects to remain here as inspector of the Hawaiian department until Lieutenant Colonel Erwin, who is the senior inspector in the Philippines, and also at the head of the list of his grade in cavalry, receives his promotion. Colonel Erwin's promotion automatically relieves him from the inspector general's department, but it may be many months before the promotion occurs, and in the meantime Colonel Galbraith will remain here. Colonel Erwin, by a peculiar operation of the additional officers bill which was made a law to restore to certain officers the rank they lost by the old regimental promotion scheme, has seen two officers of his grade recently promoted over him and the recent promotion of Colonel Hugh L. Scott to be brigadier general did not help him, as Colonel Scott was an extra colonel of cavalry.

It is possible that President Wilson will promote a colonel of cavalry to succeed General Schuyler, who retires the latter part of the month, but

A SOUR, GASSY, UPSET STOMACH "Pape's Diapepsin" Overcomes Your Indigestion in Five Minutes

Wonder what upset your stomach?—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; your head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Diapepsin and in five minutes you truly will wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite food without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.—advertisement.

ADMIRAL COWLES TO CENTRAL AMERICA

Rear Admiral Walter C. Cowles, who is to relieve Rear Admiral W. H. H. Southerland as commander in chief of the Pacific fleet, arrived yesterday on the liner Manchuria, accompanied by his wife and daughter, Edith, says the San Francisco Chronicle. For the past two and a half years Admiral Cowles has been commander of the naval station at Honolulu. He has been succeeded by Rear Admiral C. B. T. Moore.

The change of commanders will take place at the Mexican port of Guaymas, where Admiral Southerland now is with the flagship Colorado. Cowles will make the California which formerly headed the Pacific fleet, his flagship. It is expected that the California and the South Dakota, now at Acapulco, will remain on the west coast of the republic until conditions indicate that American interests will not be disturbed by the revolutionary troubles of Mexico. Admiral Cowles will proceed to Guaymas aboard the California, which is awaiting him at San Diego.

The engagement of Edith Cowles, daughter of the Admiral, to Lieutenant Leo Salm, was an interesting social announcement at Honolulu two months ago. No date has been set for the wedding, as the movements of the cruisers in southern waters are indefinite. The event will probably not take place until the war ships assemble here again.

Upon his arrival Admiral Cowles announced that he will make but two changes in the flagship staff. These will be the appointment of Lieutenant Berthoff as flag lieutenant and Lieutenant Harry A. Baldrige as ordnance officer.

Admiral Cowles has had a long and distinguished record in the navy. He entered the service forty-four years ago, and has seen more sea service than most officers. He will be retired in 1915, a year later than Admiral Southerland.

LITTLE INTERVIEWS

ALEXANDER YOUNG—Doesn't this secession stuff make you think of Gen. Sherman's diagnosis of war?

ARCHIBALD MEACOCK (steward of the Pacific Club)—Many years of deep-water steaming have taken me to all parts of this little old sphere and, believe me, Hawaii can set the pace for all of them. Land-lubbers here is very much to the good.

F. L. WALDRON—The first thing the secession army leaders did this morning was to order all the guns in Arleigh's and Wall, Nichols' stores. Then they cabled to Mrs. Pankhurst in London to come out and be their generalissimo. It was rumored that they were going to kidnap General Funston at the Commercial Club luncheon at noon.

W. R. FARRINGTON—I am told that in Washington they have what is called the silly season. It is perhaps appropriate that the season should strike Hawaii early, as we have perpetual summer. There is one proposition to buy laughing jackasses to chase mongooses, and another to frighten the United States Congress with a threat of secession. I am not so certain that to complete the rule of three we might not include the proposal for Hawaii to tell the people of California what they should do in dealing with the Japanese question. The first thing we know, some member of Congress will suggest that the people of Hawaii bring forth the royal jackass and crown him Lord of All. Then they could all have a laugh at our expense and get down to the business of dealing with American affairs on an American basis.

The suffragists, for the third time, are soon to call upon President Wilson, in an endeavor to get him to recommend a constitutional amendment which will enable women to vote.

CITIZENS FAVOR IMPROVEMENT BILLS

When the select committee of Oahu senators took up S. B. 129, which is a sister measure of S. B. 111, and provides for the manner of raising money for the widening, opening or otherwise improving streets, it found a large number of persons present, a number of whom represented improvement clubs, which have heartily endorsed the bill, while others appeared for paving companies.

It was late when the committee finally reached this bill, having first disposed of the franchise measures, so it was not able to make a final decision or take it up by sections. J. A. Gilman of the bitulithic company suggested an amendment to the clause which restricts the kind of materials to be used in improving the streets to one which admits of competition. He wished the bill amended so as to make it possible for him to bid for the street work, or to enable to petitioners of a district to specify his or another material. The committee took his suggestions under consideration. He makes the point that the nature of his paving does not admit of competition under such a clause as is projected.

That the measure is to be highly popular was shown last night, when the members of various improvement clubs, discussing the bill before the committee took it up, declared that it was of inestimable importance, and that they would rather see this measure pass, together with S. B. 111, than any other piece of legislation before the senate.

The committee will probably call a second meeting within a few days to hear whatever additional suggestions may be made before reporting on the bill.

GIVE A CHINESE TEA.

This Form of Entertainment Not Difficult in America.

"Giving a Chinese Tea Party in America" is the title of an article in the new April Harper's Bazar, which begins as follows: "Possibly no form of Chinese entertainment at home is more popular than a 'Chinese tea.' 'Tiffin' in the east is something not merely the natives, but foreigners, in China and Japan cannot do without. Here in America 'tea' served Chinese fashion, becomes a pretty function to which one cheerfully may bid one's friends. The dishes for such an occasion are not as difficult to prepare as those of dinner or even luncheon, and the tea-poy, or tray service, is very simple and most attractive. Chinese decorations—lanterns, incense bowls, etc., and Chinese flowers—these are all one needs to give the Oriental touch to the most commonplace of American rooms for this special occasion. Chinese roses are always used on festive occasions, and these are inconceivably beautiful. They are very decorative, being as large and as brilliant in color as peonies. Beautiful artificial flowers are obtainable in all the Chinese stores—indeed, there are many Chinese and Japanese stores entirely devoted to the sale of these lovely artificial flowers."

The author, Sara Bosse, then goes on to describe the details of the dishes and service.

BUSINESS ITEMS

Hawaiian stocks in San Francisco closed yesterday as follows: Hawaii at Commercial, 32.50 bid, 34 asked; Hawaiian Sugar, 31.50 bid; Honokaa, 4.50 bid, 5.75 asked; Hutchinson, 16 bid; Kilauea, 12 bid; Onomea, 30 asked; Paahau, 15.37½ bid; Union, 27.50 asked; Honolulu Plantation, 26.75 bid.

After a recovery of prices at midday, caused by the bears taking advantage of the depression to cover, the early afternoon prices on the New York exchange yesterday were well above the closing level of yesterday. Prices took a tumble again in the final hour, the bears seizing the opportunity to make a determined drive when speculation had become practically stagnant. Baltimore & Ohio and New York Central touched the year's lowest. The market closed steady.

To acquire a reputation for stinginess a man pays a high price.
